PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 01

Your Match at a Glance

Your score: 19 out of 36

Acceptable match. This is an acceptable score. Traditionally, 18 to 24 points is considered a workable match: the marriage can be happy, but some areas need conscious effort and understanding.

After applying the classical dosha cancellations found in your charts, the effective score is 32 out of 36. Both numbers are shown so that you, your family and any astrologer you consult can see exactly how it was worked out.

Strongest areas: Varna (1/1), Vashya (2/2), Tara (3/3), Graha Maitri (5/5), Nadi (8/8).

Areas that need care: Yoni (0/4), Gana (0/6), Bhakoot (0/7).

Bhakoot dosha: present but cancelled, because the two Moon-sign lords are friendly.

Gana dosha: present but cancelled, because Graha Maitri (friendship of the Moon-sign lords) is strong.

Manglik: Rahul: Mild Manglik; Priya: Manglik, cancelled. The Manglik factor is one-sided, so the Manglik section below explains what to do.

Guna Milan looks only at the two Moons. Real compatibility also depends on values, communication, family support and effort, which no score can measure. Read the sections below as a guide to the areas of your relationship that will flow easily and the ones that deserve attention.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 02

Varna Koota: 1 of 1

Varna (1 point) compares the spiritual temperament and outlook of the two partners, judged from the Moon sign. It was traditionally described with four varnas (Brahmin, Kshatriya, Vaishya, Shudra), but today it is best read as working style and values: the reflective, teaching nature (Brahmin), the leading, protecting nature (Kshatriya), the building, providing nature (Vaishya) and the serving, practical nature (Shudra). It has nothing to do with caste or birth family; it is only a description of how each Moon sign approaches duty and growth.

In your charts: 1 out of 1

Rahul's Moon in Aquarius gives the Shudra varna (hard-working, service-minded and adaptable). Priya's Moon in Libra gives the Shudra varna (hard-working, service-minded and adaptable).

You receive the full point. Your outlooks on duty, growth and responsibility sit comfortably together; the boy's approach naturally supports and respects the girl's.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 03

Vashya Koota: 2 of 2

Vashya (2 points) shows natural attraction and mutual influence: who draws whom, and how easily each partner accepts the other's way of doing things. The Moon signs are grouped into five kinds of nature: four-footed (steady, practical), human (talkative, social), water (emotional, adaptable), wild (independent, proud) and insect (intense, private). Matching groups understand each other without effort; distant groups need more conscious adjustment.

In your charts: 2 out of 2

Rahul's Moon sign belongs to the Manava (human) group (social, communicative and thoughtful); Priya's to the Manava (human) group (social, communicative and thoughtful).

Full 2 points: you belong to the same group, so attraction and understanding come naturally. Each of you accepts the other's habits without much effort.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 04

Tara Koota: 3 of 3

Tara (3 points) is the star of destiny and well-being. It counts the nakshatras from one partner's Moon to the other's, in both directions, and checks whether each count lands on a supportive star (Sampat, Kshema, Sadhaka, Mitra, Ati-Mitra or Janma) or a challenging one (Vipat, Pratyari, Vadha). A good Tara is traditionally linked with health, good luck and each partner being a positive influence on the other's life path.

In your charts: 3 out of 3

Counting from Priya's nakshatra (Swati) to Rahul's (Shatabhisha) gives Janma Tara (the birth star: shared nature), which is supportive. Counting the other way gives Janma Tara (the birth star: shared nature), which is supportive.

Both directions land on supportive stars, giving the full 3 points. Traditionally this means each of you brings good fortune, health and encouragement into the other's life.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 05

Yoni Koota: 0 of 4

Yoni (4 points) describes physical and instinctive compatibility: comfort, affection, intimacy and the everyday 'chemistry' of living together. Each nakshatra is given an animal symbol. The same animal or friendly animals indicate easy physical harmony; enemy animals (for example Cat and Rat, Serpent and Mongoose) suggest that patience and gentleness will be needed in private life.

In your charts: 0 out of 4

Rahul's nakshatra Shatabhisha has the Horse yoni (energetic and freedom-loving); Priya's nakshatra Swati has the Buffalo yoni (hard-working and steady).

0 points: the two yoni animals are traditional enemies. This suggests different instincts in private life and in handling conflict. Patience, gentleness and open conversation about each other's needs are the remedy, and many such couples have very happy marriages.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 06

Graha Maitri Koota: 5 of 5

Graha Maitri (5 points) is the friendship between the planets that rule the two Moon signs. Because the Moon is the mind, this koota shows mental compatibility: how well the two of you think alike, agree on decisions and enjoy each other's company. It is one of the most important kootas for day-to-day happiness, and a strong Graha Maitri also helps cancel other doshas.

In your charts: 5 out of 5

Rahul's Moon sign is ruled by Saturn and Priya's by Venus. Saturn regards Venus as a friend, and Venus regards Saturn as a friend.

Full 5 points: the lords of your Moon signs are friends (or the same planet). You think alike, enjoy each other's company and find it easy to agree on big decisions.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 07

Gana Koota: 0 of 6

Gana (6 points) compares basic temperament. Every nakshatra belongs to one of three ganas: Deva (gentle, idealistic, giving), Manushya (balanced, worldly, ambitious) and Rakshasa (strong-willed, independent, intense). Rakshasa does not mean 'bad'; it means a powerful, self-directed nature. Matching ganas share a rhythm; very different ganas can clash over how to react to stress.

In your charts: 0 out of 6

Rahul has Rakshasa gana (strong-willed, direct and independent; protective and very determined). Priya has Deva gana (gentle, idealistic and generous; avoids harsh words).

0 points (Gana dosha). Your temperaments are very different, especially under stress. Agree on how you will handle anger and arguments before they happen, and check below whether the dosha is cancelled.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 08

Bhakoot Koota: 0 of 7

Bhakoot (7 points), also called Rashi Koota, looks at the distance between the two Moon signs. It is traditionally linked with family welfare, prosperity, children and the overall growth of the household. Three distances are considered difficult: 2/12 (money and expenses), 5/9 (children and beliefs) and 6/8 (health and disagreements). All other distances give the full 7 points.

In your charts: 0 out of 7

Rahul's Moon is in Aquarius and Priya's in Libra. Your Moons are 5/9 apart: traditionally linked with differences in beliefs, children and philosophy. Talk openly about family plans, religion and values before marriage.

0 points (Bhakoot dosha). The distance between your Moon signs is one of the three difficult ones. See the dosha section below for what this distance means and whether it is cancelled.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 09

Nadi Koota: 8 of 8

Nadi (8 points) carries the highest weight. It divides the 27 nakshatras into three nadis, linked with the three doshas of Ayurveda: Adi (Vata), Madhya (Pitta) and Antya (Kapha). Traditionally, different nadis are preferred because they bring balance in health, energy and the well-being of children. The same nadi gives 0 points (Nadi dosha) unless one of the classical exceptions applies.

In your charts: 8 out of 8

Rahul has Adi nadi (Vata (air) nature: quick, active, creative, prone to restlessness). Priya has Antya nadi (Kapha (water) nature: steady, caring, enduring, prone to slowness).

Full 8 points: you have different nadis. This is considered the most important single factor for health balance and the well-being of children, and it is clear in your match.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 10

Doshas and Their Cancellation

Three kootas can create a dosha (a flaw) when they score 0 or very low: Nadi, Bhakoot and Gana. Classical texts also give exceptions that cancel these doshas. This section applies those rules to your two charts.

Bhakoot dosha (5/9)

Status: cancelled. The dosha is present on paper, but it is cancelled because the two Moon-sign lords are friendly. Most traditional astrologers treat a cancelled dosha as having little or no effect. Some families still prefer to do a simple remedy for peace of mind; these are listed in the remedies section.

Bhakoot dosha is traditionally connected with family prosperity and harmony. In practical terms, be open about money and family plans, involve both families respectfully, and do not let small disagreements build up.

Gana dosha

Status: cancelled. The dosha is present on paper, but it is cancelled because Graha Maitri (friendship of the Moon-sign lords) is strong. Most traditional astrologers treat a cancelled dosha as having little or no effect. Some families still prefer to do a simple remedy for peace of mind; these are listed in the remedies section.

Gana dosha shows a large difference in temperament. In practical terms, learn how each of you reacts to stress, give each other space when needed, and never argue when tired or hungry.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 11

Manglik Compatibility

Mars (Mangal) in the 1st, 2nd, 4th, 7th, 8th or 12th house is called Manglik or Kuja dosha. It is traditionally checked for both partners, because the energy of Mars is best balanced by a partner with similar Mars energy.

Rahul: Mild Manglik

Mars is in the 9th house from the ascendant and the 2nd from the Moon.

Priya: Manglik, cancelled

Mars is in the 12th house from the ascendant and the 5th from the Moon. Cancellation: Jupiter aspects Mars.

What it means for you

The Manglik factor is one-sided: one partner has an active Manglik placement and the other does not. Traditionally this is handled with simple remedies before marriage (listed in the remedies section) and by choosing an auspicious muhurat. In everyday life, the more Mars-driven partner should channel energy into exercise and work, and both should keep arguments calm and short.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 12

Rahul's Marriage and Relationship Picture

Birth time: 08:30.

Rahul's emotional nature: Moon in Aquarius, Shatabhisha nakshatra

With your Moon in Aquarius, you process emotions with your head. You value friendship, independence and fairness. You care about people and causes, yet can seem detached. Giving yourself permission to feel, not just think, deepens your relationships.

Born in Shatabhisha nakshatra (ruled by Rahu), you are independent, analytical and a natural healer. Shatabhisha is the star of a hundred healers: you are drawn to science, medicine, technology or mysteries. You need solitude.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 14

Timing: When the Stars Support You Both

The dates below come from each partner's own chart. Periods that overlap are traditionally the smoothest times for engagement and marriage.

Rahul

Current period: Saturn Mahadasha, Rahu Antardasha (until 14 Jun 2027).

Favourable marriage periods from now:

- Saturn-Rahu: 7 Aug 2024 to 14 Jun 2027 (Saturn: lord of 7th house; Rahu: Rahu (desire, can trigger sudden marriage))

Priya

Current period: Saturn Mahadasha, Saturn Antardasha (until 12 May 2028).

Favourable marriage periods from now:

- Saturn-Saturn: 9 May 2025 to 12 May 2028 (Saturn: lord of 11th house (fulfilment))

Shared favourable windows

- 17 Oct 2026 to 14 Jun 2027

Within a shared window, choose the exact wedding date with a muhurat from your family priest or astrologer.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 15

Additional Checks: Mahendra and Stree-Deergha

Beyond the eight kootas, two further checks are often used, especially in South India.

Mahendra: present

Counting from Priya's nakshatra to Rahul's gives 10. This is a Mahendra count (4, 7, 10, 13, 16, 19, 22 or 25), traditionally linked with prosperity, longevity of the marriage and the well-being of children.

Stree-Deergha: acceptable

The same count (10) is used. Between 9 and 13 is acceptable.

PART 2 · YOUR MATCH · 16

Remedies for Your Match

These remedies are traditional, simple and inexpensive. Do the ones that apply to your match; none of them requires a large payment.

For the Manglik imbalance

- The Manglik partner reads the Hanuman Chalisa every Tuesday and chants Om Angarakaya Namah 108 times.
- Donate red lentils (masoor dal) or jaggery on Tuesdays.
- Choose the wedding date with an auspicious muhurat. A traditional option some families choose is a Mangal Shanti puja before the wedding; it is not compulsory.

For your weakest kootas

- Yoni: small daily gestures of affection; talk openly and kindly about each other's needs.
- Gana: learn each other's stress signals and give space when needed.

For a happy marriage (everyone)

- Light a lamp together on Fridays and pray to Goddess Lakshmi and Lord Vishnu (or Shiva and Parvati) for harmony.
- Visit a temple together on your wedding anniversary and on each other's birthdays.
- Give to charity together once a month; shared giving strengthens shared purpose.

PART 3 · UNDERSTANDING KUNDLI MILAN

How Guna Milan Works

Guna Milan (also called Ashtakoota Milan) is the traditional North Indian method of matching horoscopes for marriage. It compares the Moon of the two partners, because the Moon represents the mind and emotions, which matter most in living together. Eight factors (kootas) are scored, with weights from 1 to 8, for a total of 36 points.

Koota	Points	What it shows
Varna	1	Outlook and values
Vashya	2	Attraction and influence
Tara	3	Fortune and well-being
Yoni	4	Physical and instinctive harmony
Graha Maitri	5	Mental compatibility
Gana	6	Temperament
Bhakoot	7	Family welfare and prosperity
Nadi	8	Health balance and children

Traditional score bands: below 18 is not advised without careful study; 18 to 24 is acceptable; 25 to 32 is very good; 33 to 36 is excellent.

PART 3 · UNDERSTANDING KUNDLI MILAN

What a Score Can and Cannot Tell You

A score is a useful starting point, not a final verdict. A couple with 30 points can still struggle if they do not communicate, and a couple with 20 points can be very happy with shared values and effort.

- It can tell you which areas will flow naturally and which need conscious work.
- It cannot measure love, respect, honesty, family support or the effort you both put in.
- Doshas have exceptions. Always look at the cancellation rules, as this report does.
- The full charts matter. The 7th house, Venus, Jupiter and the dasha periods of each partner (included in this report) add important detail beyond the Moon.

PART 3 · UNDERSTANDING KUNDLI MILAN

Frequently Asked Questions

Our score is below 18. Should we not marry? Not necessarily. Look at which kootas are low, whether the doshas are cancelled, and how you actually get along. Many families then consult an astrologer and do the remedies.

One of us does not know the exact birth time. Is the matching still valid? Yes. Guna Milan uses only the Moon, which changes slowly. Unless the Moon changed nakshatra on that day, the score is the same at any time. Only the Manglik check from the ascendant and the dasha dates need the exact time.

Why do different websites show slightly different scores? There are small differences between traditions in a few tables (especially Vashya and Gana) and in the cancellation rules. This report states every value so you can compare.

Is Rakshasa gana bad? No. It describes a strong, independent temperament. It matters only in how it combines with the partner's gana.
