Yogas & Doshas in Your Chart

Gajakesari Yoga

How it forms in your chart: Jupiter in house 7 from Moon. (Jupiter weak)

Gajakesari Yoga is present, but Jupiter is weak, so it works in a quieter way: a thoughtful mind and help from mentors rather than fame.

Budhaditya Yoga

How it forms in your chart: Sun and Mercury together in Scorpio. (weakened, Mercury is combust)

Budhaditya Yoga is present, but Mercury is too close to the Sun (combust) or weak, so your intelligence may not always get full credit. Writing and preparation help.

Raja Yoga

How it forms in your chart: Saturn (lord of 7) and Sun (lord of 1) together in one sign. (Saturn weak, Sun strong)

A Raja Yoga is present, but one of the planets involved is not strong, so its results are real but moderate, and they come through effort.

Raja Yoga

How it forms in your chart: Venus (lord of 10) and Sun (lord of 1) together in one sign. (Venus medium, Sun strong)

A Raja Yoga is present, but one of the planets involved is not strong, so its results are real but moderate, and they come through effort.

Yogakaraka planet

How it forms in your chart: Mars rules houses [4, 9]. (Mars is medium, placed in house 2)

You have a Yogakaraka planet, but it is not at full strength, so its periods bring progress through steady effort.

Dhana Yoga

How it forms in your chart: Mercury (lord of 2) with Sun (lord of 1).

A Dhana Yoga (wealth combination) is formed by the lords of the money houses combining with the lords of good fortune. It supports earning and saving well over time.

Dhana Yoga

How it forms in your chart: Mercury (lord of 11) with Sun (lord of 1).

A Dhana Yoga (wealth combination) is formed by the lords of the money houses combining with the lords of good fortune. It supports earning and saving well over time.

Vipareeta Raja Yoga

How it forms in your chart: Jupiter, lord of 8, sits in house 6. (gains after difficulties)

Sarala Yoga, a Vipareeta Raja Yoga, is formed by the 8th lord in a difficult house. It gives fearlessness, longevity and the ability to come out of crises stronger.

Vipareeta Raja Yoga

How it forms in your chart: Moon, lord of 12, sits in house 12. (gains after difficulties)

Vimala Yoga, a Vipareeta Raja Yoga, is formed by the 12th lord in a difficult house. It gives control over expenses, independence and good conduct.

Kemadruma Yoga

How it forms in your chart: no planets on either side of the Moon. (CANCELLED: Jupiter in a kendra from the Moon)

Kemadruma Yoga is cancelled in your chart because planets support the Moon from the angles. You may sometimes feel on your own, but help arrives when needed.

Neecha Bhanga (Jupiter)

How it forms in your chart: Jupiter is debilitated in Capricorn, but Saturn (lord of its sign) is in a kendra from the lagna or Moon; Moon (lord of its exaltation sign) is in a kendra from the lagna or Moon. (debilitation largely cancelled: results improve with age and effort)

Neecha Bhanga Yoga: a planet that is debilitated (weak) in your chart has its weakness cancelled. Such a planet often starts weak and becomes a real strength later in life, sometimes bringing a rise from modest beginnings.

Manglik (Mangal) dosha

Mars is in your 2nd house from the ascendant and the 3rd from the Moon. Cancellation: Jupiter aspects Mars.

Your chart is technically Manglik, but the dosha is cancelled by classical rules (for example, Mars in its own or exalted sign, or Jupiter's aspect on Mars). What remains is temperament: you have a strong, active Mars, best matched with a partner who appreciates directness.

Kaal Sarp dosha

There is no Kaal Sarp dosha in your chart: your planets are not all on one side of the Rahu-Ketu axis.

Remedies (Upay) for Your Chart

Remedies (upay) do not change your destiny; they help you work with it. Each remedy below was chosen from your own chart: your ascendant lord, the planets that are weak, the planets running your current period and any doshas. You do not need to do everything. Start with the daily routine at the end of this section, then add one or two more remedies that feel right.

Your lucky factors

- Ruling planet (ascendant lord): Sun
- Lucky day: Sunday
- Lucky colours: saffron, orange and red
- Lucky number: 1 (your Mulank is 3)
- Favourable direction: East (face it while praying or studying)
- Deity to worship: Surya (the Sun god)
- Life stone: Ruby (Manik)

Gemstones (Ratna)

Gemstones strengthen a planet; they do not calm it. So a gemstone is worn only for planets that are friendly to your ascendant, never for the planets that rule difficult houses.

- Life stone (main): Ruby (Manik) for Sun. Affordable substitute: Red garnet or sunstone. Metal: gold or copper. Finger: ring finger of the right hand (left hand if you are left-handed). Weight: about 3 to 5 carats. Wear it first on Sunday morning, within an hour after sunrise, after chanting Om Suryaya Namah 108 times.
- Lucky stone (second): Yellow Sapphire (Pukhraj) for Jupiter. Affordable substitute: Yellow topaz or citrine. Metal: gold. Finger: index finger of the right hand (left hand if you are left-handed). Weight: about 3 to 5 carats. Wear it first on Thursday morning, within two hours after sunrise, after chanting Om Brihaspataye Namah 108 times.
- Fortune stone (optional): Red Coral (Moonga) for Mars. Affordable substitute: Carnelian. Metal: gold or copper. Finger: ring finger of the right hand (left hand if you are left-handed). Weight: about 6 to 9 carats. Wear it first on Tuesday morning, within two hours after sunrise, after chanting Om Angarakaya Namah 108 times.

Avoid: Pearl (Moti) for Moon, which rules your 12th house; Blue Sapphire (Neelam) for Saturn, which rules your 6th and 7th houses. Wearing these can strengthen the problems of those houses.

Avoid without expert advice: Blue Sapphire (Neelam), Hessonite (Gomed) and Cat's Eye (Lehsunia) act quickly and strongly. Wear them only if an experienced astrologer confirms it, and first keep the stone under your pillow for three nights to see how you feel.

Before buying: buy only a natural, untreated stone with a lab certificate (for example from GII or IGI). The stone should touch your skin. You do not need an expensive stone: a clean, certified substitute (uparatna) is better than a cheap low-quality main stone. If your budget is tight, skip the stone completely; the mantra and daan below work without one.

Remedies for your current period

You are in Moon Mahadasha (until 26 Feb 2031) and Saturn Antardasha (until 27 Dec 2026). Keeping these two planets happy makes the whole period smoother.

- Moon (Mahadasha lord): chant Om Shraam Shreem Shraum Sah Chandraya Namah 108 times on Mondays; offer water or milk on a Shivling on Mondays and chant Om Namah Shivaya 108 times; give rice, milk, white cloth or silver on Mondays.
- Saturn (Antardasha lord): already covered above; give it extra attention now.

Your next Mahadasha, Mars, begins on 26 Feb 2031. About a month before, start chanting Om Angarakaya Namah on Tuesdays to welcome it.

Manglik (Mangal) dosha remedies

Your Manglik effect is mild or partly cancelled, so simple remedies are enough.

- Read the Hanuman Chalisa every Tuesday, and visit a Hanuman temple when you can.
- Chant Om Angarakaya Namah 108 times on Tuesdays.
- On Tuesdays give red lentils (masoor dal) or jaggery, and avoid non-vegetarian food and alcohol that day.
- Channel Mars energy into sport, exercise or a demanding project; handle anger and arguments with care, and drive carefully.
- For marriage, the kundli of the partner should be matched (Guna Milan plus a Manglik check). A partner who is also Manglik balances it.

Your 10-minute daily routine

1. On waking: take a few deep breaths, then look at your palms and remember your goal for the day.
2. Morning: get 5 to 10 minutes of early sunlight.

3. Mantra: chant Om Suryaya Namah (your ascendant lord) 11 times, and Om Brihaspataye Namah (your weakest planet) 11 times.
4. Habit: Keep learning, and respect your teachers and elders.
5. Weekly: on Thursdays, do the daan for Jupiter; on Sundays, wear saffron and pray to Surya (the Sun god).
6. Evening: light a lamp at home, and spend two minutes thinking about what went well today.

Use your strongest planets

- Sun: To make a strong Sun even stronger, take leadership roles and mentor others.
- Moon: To make a strong Moon even stronger, use your empathy in caring for others.

A note of caution

No genuine remedy requires a large payment, and nothing bad will happen if you skip one. Be careful of anyone who uses fear to sell pujas or stones. Remedies work best alongside your own effort, honesty and care for others, and they are never a substitute for medical, legal or financial advice.

PART 3 • UNDERSTANDING YOUR KUNDLI

How to Read This Report

This report has three parts. Part 1 shows your birth data: the exact positions of the planets, your charts and your dasha timeline. Part 2 is your personal reading, written from the combinations in your chart. Part 3 is this guide, which explains the ideas behind the reading so you can understand your own chart.

A good way to read it

- Start with Your Chart at a Glance. It gives the main themes in a few pages.
- Then read the sections that matter most to you right now, such as career, relationships or the current period.
- Read Check This Report Against Your Past. If the past periods match your life, you can trust the timings for the future more.
- Come back to the timeline sections every few months; they are written with dates so you can check them as life unfolds.

Important to remember

Astrology describes tendencies and timing, not fixed destiny. Your effort, choices and values always matter. Use this report as a guide for self-understanding and planning, not as a reason to fear or to stop trying.

What Is a Kundli?

A kundli (also called a janma kundali or birth chart) is a map of the sky at the exact moment and place of your birth. It shows where the Sun, Moon and planets were, which sign was rising on the eastern horizon, and which nakshatra (lunar mansion) the Moon occupied.

What goes into your kundli

- Date, time and place of birth. The time decides your ascendant (lagna) and house positions; a difference of even a few minutes can change details. The place decides latitude, longitude and time zone.
- Ayanamsa. Vedic astrology uses the sidereal zodiac, which is aligned with the fixed stars. This report uses the Lahiri ayanamsa, the official standard in India.
- Whole-sign houses. Each sign is one house, starting from the ascendant sign.

The North Indian chart

In the North Indian chart style used in this report, the top central diamond is always your 1st house (ascendant). The houses then run anti-clockwise. The numbers written in each house show which sign (1 = Aries, 2 = Taurus ... 12 = Pisces) falls in that house. Planet abbreviations (Su, Mo, Ma, Me, Ju, Ve, Sa, Ra, Ke) show where each planet sits, with its degree.

The 12 Houses (Bhavas)

The houses are the twelve areas of life. A planet sitting in a house brings its energy to that area, and the planet that rules a house (its lord) carries that area's matters wherever it goes in the chart.

The twelve houses

- 1st house (Lagna, Tanu Bhava): your body, personality, health, appearance and overall direction in life.
- 2nd house (Dhana Bhava): family, money, savings, speech, food habits and early education.
- 3rd house (Sahaja Bhava): courage, effort, siblings, communication, skills, hobbies and short journeys.
- 4th house (Sukha Bhava): home, mother, property, vehicles, comfort, inner peace and school education.
- 5th house (Putra Bhava): intelligence, studies, creativity, romance, children and investments.
- 6th house (Ripu Bhava): daily work, service, competition, enemies, debts and health issues.
- 7th house (Kalatra Bhava): marriage, spouse, business partnerships and dealings with the public.
- 8th house (Ayu Bhava): sudden changes, transformation, research, hidden matters, inheritance and longevity.
- 9th house (Bhagya Bhava): luck, father, teachers, higher learning, religion, philosophy and long journeys.
- 10th house (Karma Bhava): career, status, reputation, authority and actions in the world.
- 11th house (Labha Bhava): income, gains, friends, networks, elder siblings and fulfilment of wishes.
- 12th house (Vyaya Bhava): expenses, foreign lands, sleep, isolation, spirituality and liberation.

Groups of houses

- Kendras (angles: 1, 4, 7, 10) are the pillars of the chart; planets here are strong and visible.
- Trikonas (trines: 1, 5, 9) are the houses of fortune and dharma; planets here bring blessings.
- Dusthanas (6, 8, 12) are the houses of challenges; planets here work harder, but can also give resilience and success after struggle.
- Upachayas (3, 6, 10, 11) are the houses of growth; difficult planets here improve with time.

The 9 Planets (Grahas)

Vedic astrology uses nine grahas. Each has its own nature, signifies certain people and areas of life, and rules one or two signs.

- Sun (Surya): soul, self-confidence, authority, father, government, vitality. Rules Leo.
- Moon (Chandra): mind, emotions, mother, public, comfort, imagination. Rules Cancer.
- Mars (Mangal): energy, courage, siblings, property, engineering, competition. Rules Aries and Scorpio.
- Mercury (Budha): intelligence, speech, business, learning, writing, friends. Rules Gemini and Virgo.
- Jupiter (Guru): wisdom, teachers, children, wealth, dharma, good fortune. Rules Sagittarius and Pisces.
- Venus (Shukra): love, marriage, beauty, art, comfort, vehicles, luxury. Rules Taurus and Libra.
- Saturn (Shani): discipline, hard work, delays, longevity, service, justice. Rules Capricorn and Aquarius.
- Rahu (North Node): ambition, desire, foreign things, technology, the unconventional. A shadow planet.
- Ketu (South Node): detachment, spirituality, intuition, research, past-life skills. A shadow planet.

Natural benefics and malefics

Jupiter, Venus, a well-placed Mercury and a bright Moon are natural benefics: they tend to give comfort and growth. The Sun, Mars, Saturn, Rahu and Ketu are natural malefics: they bring challenges, but also drive, discipline and achievement. In your chart, what a planet does also depends on which houses it rules for your ascendant, which is why this report always mentions lordship.

The 12 Signs (Rashis)

The twelve signs (rashis) colour how a planet expresses itself.

- Aries (Mesha): fiery, pioneering, quick, courageous.
- Taurus (Vrishabha): earthy, steady, practical, comfort-loving.
- Gemini (Mithuna): airy, curious, communicative, versatile.
- Cancer (Karka): watery, caring, emotional, protective.
- Leo (Simha): fiery, proud, generous, leading.
- Virgo (Kanya): earthy, analytical, precise, service-minded.
- Libra (Tula): airy, balanced, diplomatic, artistic.
- Scorpio (Vrishchika): watery, intense, private, transformative.
- Sagittarius (Dhanu): fiery, principled, optimistic, philosophical.
- Capricorn (Makara): earthy, ambitious, disciplined, patient.
- Aquarius (Kumbha): airy, original, humanitarian, independent.

- Pisces (Meena): watery, compassionate, imaginative, spiritual.

Your three key signs

Your ascendant sign describes your body and approach to life. Your Moon sign (rashi) describes your mind and emotions, and is used for daily horoscopes and Sade Sati. Your Sun sign (sidereal) describes your core self and vitality. In Vedic astrology, the ascendant and Moon sign are considered more important than the Sun sign.

Nakshatras: The 27 Lunar Mansions

The zodiac is divided into 27 nakshatras of 13°20' each. Every nakshatra has a ruling planet, a deity and a symbol, and is divided into 4 padas (quarters).

Why your nakshatra matters

- Your birth nakshatra (the Moon's nakshatra) describes your emotional nature and instincts in fine detail.
- It decides your Vimshottari dasha sequence: the ruling planet of your birth nakshatra runs your first dasha period.
- It is used for naming (the first syllable of a name), marriage matching (Guna Milan) and choosing auspicious dates (muhurta).

In this report, each planet's nakshatra is also described, adding a second layer of meaning to its sign and house.

Planet Strength, Dignity and Lordship

Not every planet works at the same strength. This report gives each planet a simple 0–10 strength score, based on:

- Dignity: exalted (strongest), moolatrikona, own sign, friend's sign, neutral sign, enemy's sign, debilitated (weakest).
- House: planets in angles and trines are strengthened; planets in the 6th, 8th and 12th work harder.
- Combustion: a planet too close to the Sun loses some independent strength.
- Vargottama: a planet in the same sign in the birth chart (D1) and the Navamsha (D9) is strengthened.
- Navamsha dignity: exaltation or debilitation in the D9 chart adds or reduces inner strength.

Lordship

Each planet rules one or two houses for your ascendant. A planet's dasha brings the matters of the houses it rules to the places where it sits. This is why the same planet can be wonderful for one person and challenging for another.

Cancellation (Neecha Bhanga)

A debilitated planet can have its weakness cancelled by certain classical conditions. Such planets often start weak and become strong later in life.

Dashas: The Timing of Your Life

The Vimshottari dasha system divides life into periods ruled by the nine planets, in a fixed order and for fixed lengths, totalling 120 years:

- Ketu 7 years, Venus 20, Sun 6, Moon 10, Mars 7, Rahu 18, Jupiter 16, Saturn 19, Mercury 17.

Your first dasha depends on the nakshatra the Moon occupied at birth, and part of it was already used up before you were born (the balance of dasha at birth).

Mahadasha, Antardasha

Each Mahadasha (main period) is divided into nine Antardashas (sub-periods), in the same order. The Mahadasha sets the overall theme; the Antardasha decides what is active at a given time. Results depend on:

- where both planets sit in your chart and which houses they rule,
- their strength and their relationship with each other,
- and the transits happening at the same time.

This report lists every Mahadasha of your life and every sub-period for the coming years, with dates and your age.

Transits, Sade Sati and Dhaiya

Transits (gochara) describe where the planets are moving now, compared with your birth chart, especially your Moon sign.

Sade Sati

Sade Sati is the roughly 7.5-year period when Saturn passes through the sign before your Moon, over your Moon, and the sign after it. It usually comes two or three times in a lifetime. It is a period of responsibility, maturity and hard work, and its effect depends greatly on what Saturn rules in your chart. It is not something to fear; many people achieve their greatest stability during it.

Dhaiya (Small Panoti)

Saturn's 2.5-year transits through the 4th (Kantaka) and 8th (Ashtama) houses from the Moon are also periods that ask for patience and care.

Jupiter and Rahu transits

Jupiter's yearly movement brings growth to the houses it transits and aspects; marriage, children, education and gains are often timed by Jupiter. Rahu and Ketu change signs every 18 months and highlight the areas where desire and detachment play out.

Yogas and Doshas

A yoga is a special combination of planets that produces a particular result. Classical texts list hundreds of yogas; this report shows only the ones actually present in your chart and comments on their strength, because a yoga formed by weak planets gives modest results.

Common types

- Pancha Mahapurusha yogas (Ruchaka, Bhadra, Hamsa, Malavya, Sasa): a strong planet in an angle.
- Raja yogas: links between the lords of angles and trines, giving status and success.
- Dhana yogas: combinations for wealth.
- Vipareeta Raja yogas: success that comes after difficulties.
- Chandra yogas (Gajakesari, Sunapha, Anapha and so on): combinations involving the Moon.

Doshas

A dosha is a combination considered challenging, such as Manglik (Mangal) dosha or Kaal Sarp. Many doshas have classical cancellations, and almost all of them describe tendencies that can be managed with awareness. This report always tells you whether a dosha is present, partial or cancelled, without exaggeration.

Divisional Charts: D9 and D10

Divisional charts (vargas) divide each sign into smaller parts to examine specific areas of life.

- D9 Navamsha: the most important divisional chart. It shows inner strength of the planets, marriage and spouse, and the fruits of life in the second half. A planet strong in D9 delivers better results than its birth-chart position alone suggests.
- D10 Dashamsha: the career chart. It shows profession, status and work achievements.

This report draws both your D1 (birth) chart and your D9 chart, and uses D9 and D10 signs in the analysis.

Our Approach to Remedies

The remedies in this report are chosen to be simple, free or low-cost, and practical: daily habits, weekly practices, short mantras, service and lifestyle changes. They are chosen for the planets that most need support in your chart, and for the periods ahead.

We do not prescribe expensive gemstones, pujas or rituals, and we never suggest that something bad will happen if you do not buy a remedy. If you wish to wear a gemstone, consult a qualified astrologer who checks your full chart first, because a wrong gemstone can strengthen the wrong planet.

The most powerful remedy is always your own conduct: discipline, kindness, honesty and steady effort.

Frequently Asked Questions

How accurate is this report?

The planetary positions are calculated with NASA JPL ephemeris data and are accurate to within a few arcseconds. The interpretation is based on classical Vedic principles. Accuracy of timing depends heavily on your birth time being correct.

My birth time is approximate. Does that matter?

Yes. A difference of 10–15 minutes can change the ascendant degree, the house positions of some planets and the dasha dates by weeks or months. If the past-period checks in this report do not match your life, consider having your birth time rectified.

Why does my report differ slightly from another website?

Different software uses different ayanamsas, ephemerides and calculation methods. Small differences of a few days in dasha dates or a few minutes of arc in positions are normal.

Is Manglik dosha dangerous?

No. It describes a strong Mars energy in relationships. It is very common, often cancelled by classical rules, and is managed through good matching and mutual understanding.

Should I fear Sade Sati?

No. Sade Sati is a period of responsibility and maturity. With patience and steady effort, many people achieve lasting stability during it.

Can astrology tell me exactly what will happen?

Astrology shows tendencies and favourable or challenging times. Your choices, effort and circumstances shape the actual outcome.

What should I do if a prediction does not come true?

Treat this report as guidance, not certainty. Check your birth details, and remember that free will and effort always play a major role.
